A Lecture on Anti-Drug Campaign,

On November 11, 2024, G.D.C. Baldwara hosted a lecture about the Anti-Drug Campaign, organized by the Anti-Drug Cell in collaboration with the Rovers, Rangers, and the National Service Scheme (NSS). The event took place under the expert guidance of Principal Prof. Vijay Kumar Kaundal, who emphasized the importance of awareness in the fight against drug abuse. The lecture was delivered by DSP Sanjeev Gautam from Sarkaghat, a well-known authority on the subject. He shared valuable insights into the impacts of drug abuse on individuals and society, discussed prevention strategies, and highlighted the role of youth in combating this pressing issue. The event saw enthusiastic participation from both staff and students, who engaged actively with the material presented, asking questions and sharing their thoughts on how to promote a drug-free environment. This initiative aimed not only to educate but also to inspire the community to take a stand against drug-related challenges.
