Lecture on

"Addressing Violence Against Women: Features, Challenges, and Protective Measures"

The Committee Against Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace organized a lecture on "Addressing Violence Against Women: Features, Challenges, and Protective Measures" on 19th March 2025 at 11:30 am. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Dayak Ram Thakur, Associate Professor of Political Science, in the presence of Principal Prof. Vijay Kumar Kaundal.

The event was attended by faculty members, staff, and a large number of girl students. Dr. Thakur addressed the audience on the pressing issues related to violence against women, discussing the key features, challenges, and protective measures available under the law. He emphasized the significance of raising awareness and the collective responsibility of society to ensure women's safety and protection. During the interactive session that followed, students and staff members actively participated by asking insightful questions and sharing their perspectives.
