MENTOR'S ANNUAL REPORT 2024-25

Date: 29th March, 2025

Name of the Mentor: Dr. Shalu Kanwar
Designation: Assistant Professor
Department: Botany

Number of Mentees Allotted: 24 (B.Sc. 1st, 2nd, 3rd Year – Physics, Zoology, Chemistry)

Mentor's Report

In the academic session 2024-25, I was assigned 24 mentees from B.Sc. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Year (Physics, Zoology, and Chemistry). Three mentor-mentee meetings were conducted during the session to provide academic, emotional, and motivational support.

1st Meeting – 28th September 2024

The mentees were welcomed and briefed about the academic calendar and college facilities. A WhatsApp group was created for effective communication. Students were encouraged to maintain regular attendance, stay connected with subject teachers, and openly discuss academic or personal concerns. The importance of hard work and discipline was emphasized.

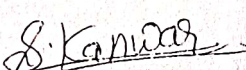

2nd Meeting – 26th November 2024

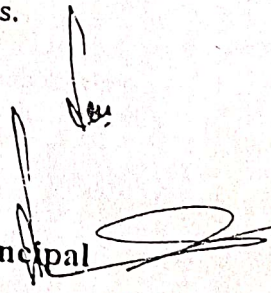

This session focused on preparation strategies for the Mid-Term Exams. Mentees were guided to follow a structured study schedule and daily revision plan. The significance of physical activities, mental wellness, and engaging in hobbies was discussed. Group discussions were encouraged to promote collaborative learning.

3rd Meeting – 28th February 2025

Mentees reflected on their Mid-Term Exam experiences and shared challenges. They were advised to practice using past papers and follow a consistent study routine. The importance of timely assignment submission and reaching out to subject teachers for academic support was reiterated. Motivational guidance was provided to help them prepare confidently for the annual exams.

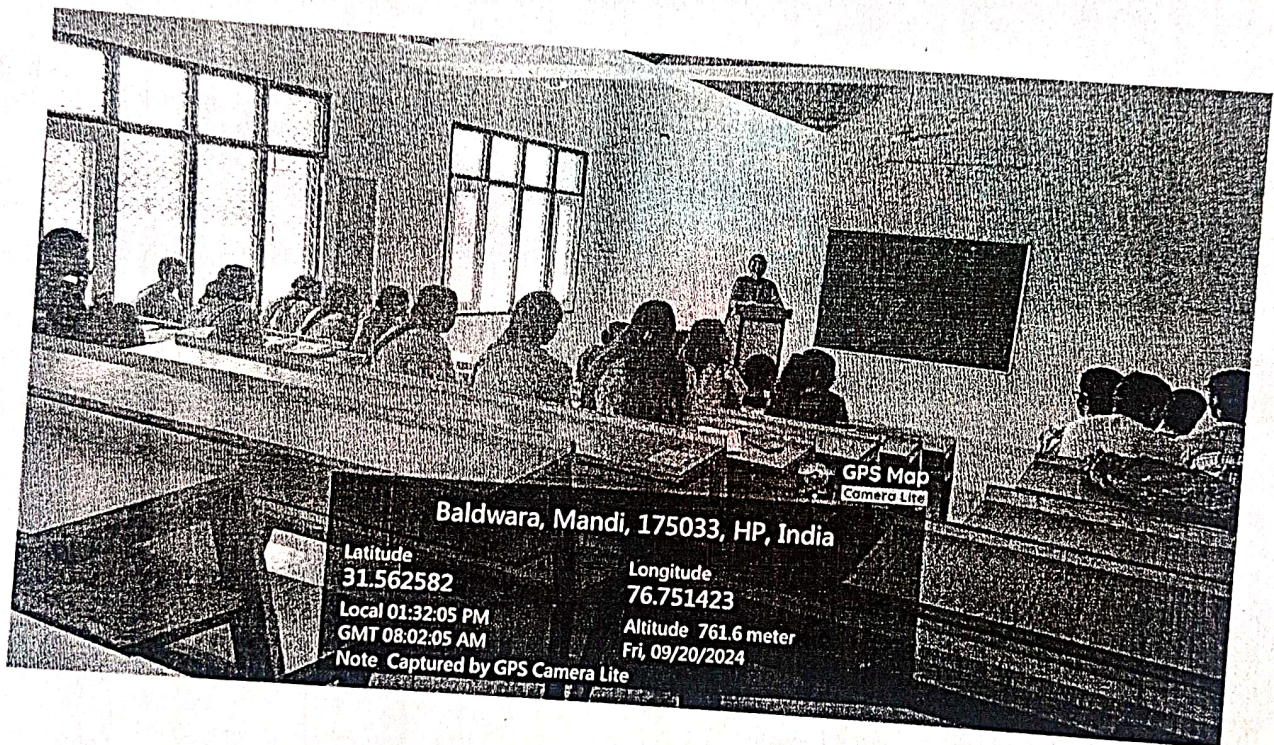

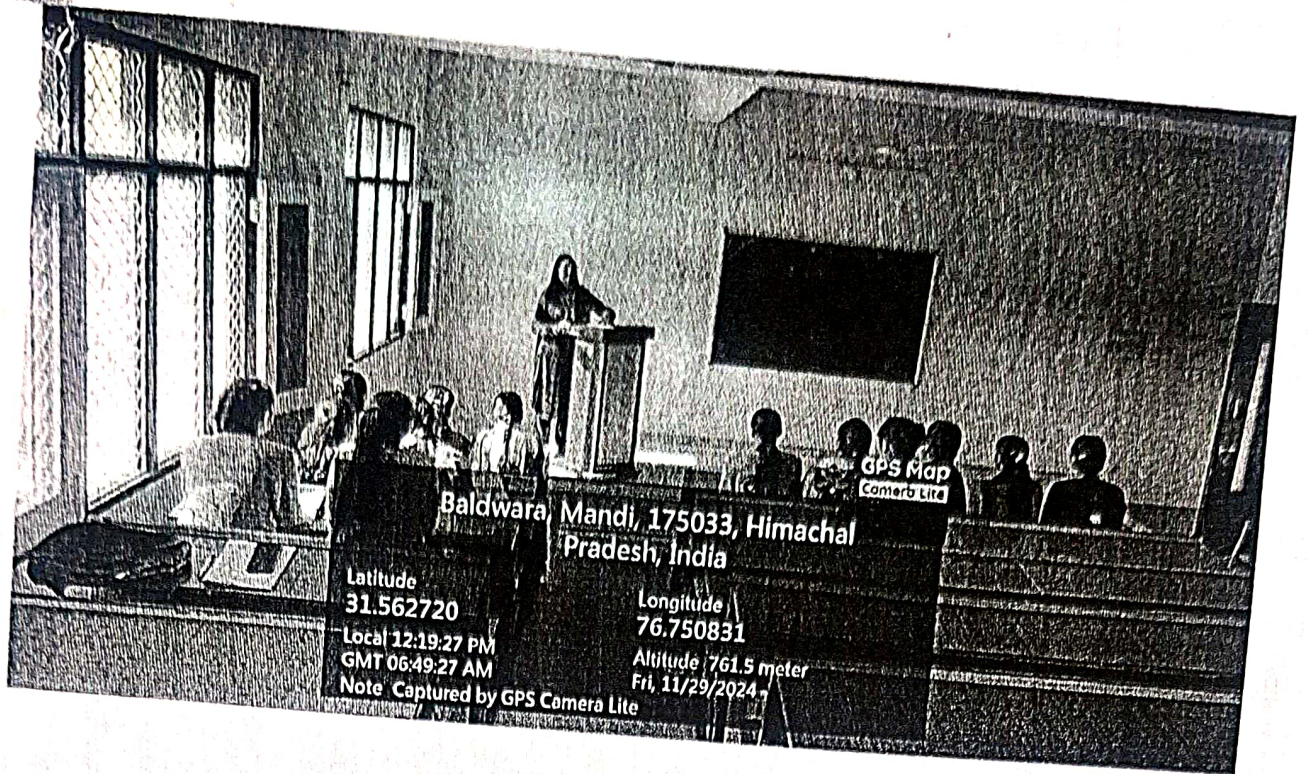

These mentoring sessions resulted in improved academic performance, better participation in extra-curricular activities, and enhanced mental well-being among the mentees.

Mentor's Report

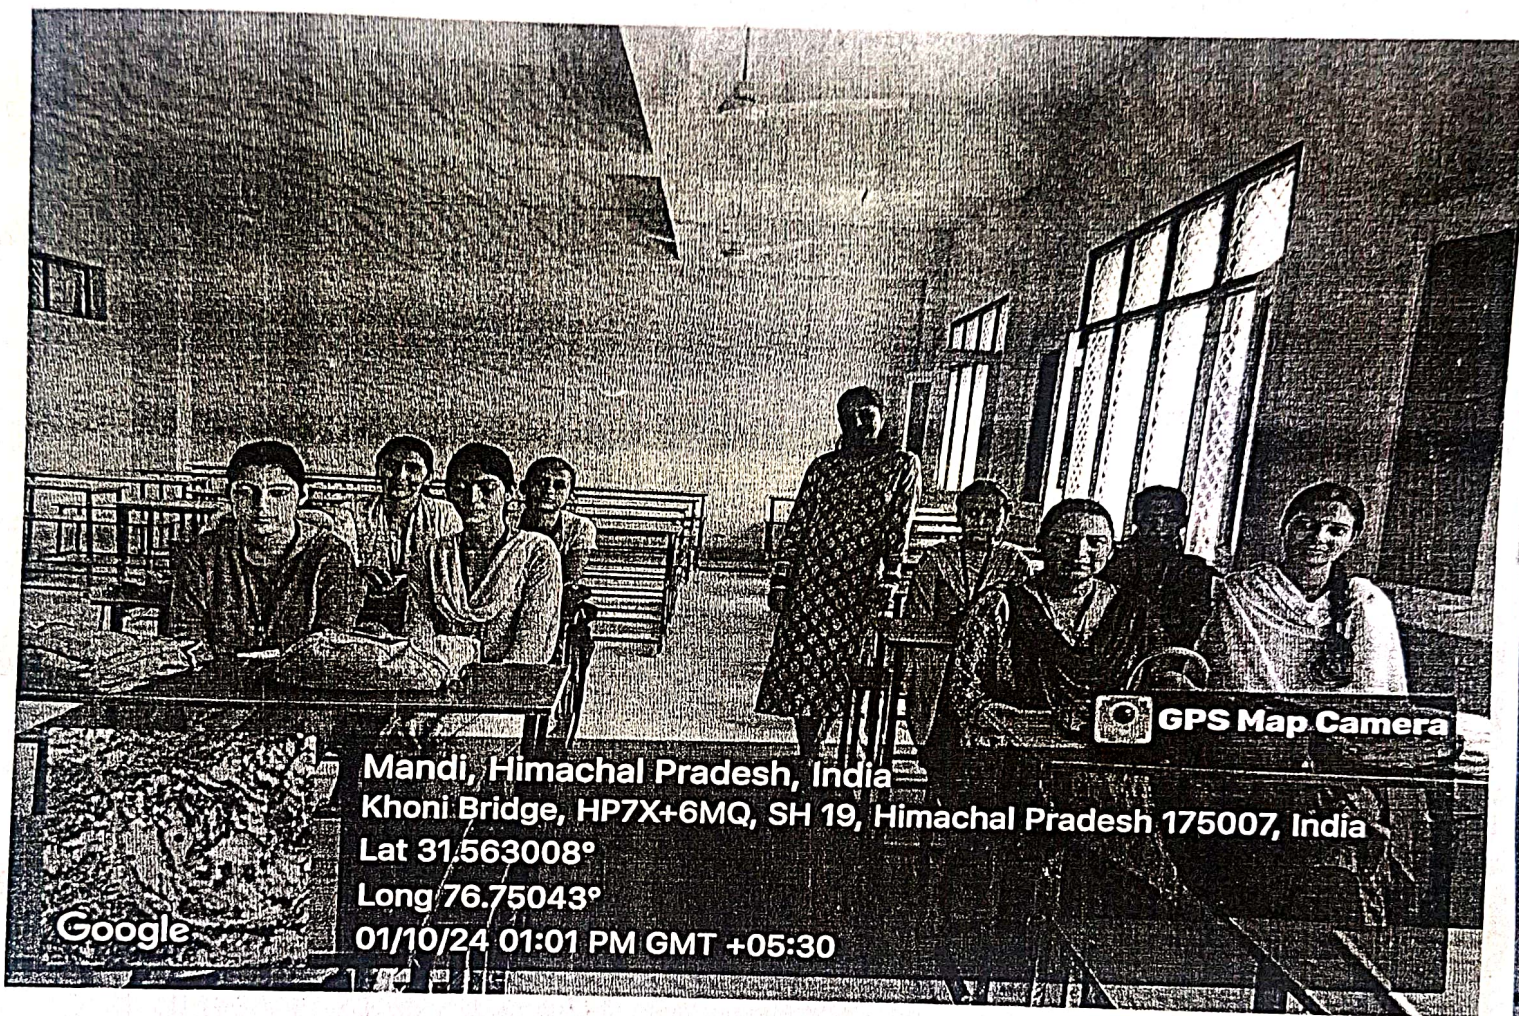

In the Academic Session 2024-25, Mentees of class B.A. 2nd Year History major, Political Science major and Hindi major subjects were allotted to me. Three meetings were conducted and the details of the meetings are as follow:

1. The first Mentor mentees meeting was conducted on October 01, 2024. Students were welcomed and discussed about their study in the first meeting. Then discussed about their previous year result. Also discussed the points to be followed to study effectively and score good marks in exams. Mentees were also asked about challenges they were facing in their study and other challenges in college. They were also suggested to discuss any personal problem they are facing in their life with the mentor. They were encouraged to be punctual and honest with their study.
2. In the second meeting with the Mentees conducted on 29 November, 2024 mentees were asked about the challenges they are facing in their study. They were encouraged to start preparing for their Mid Term Tests (MTT). For those experiencing difficulties in certain subjects, it was recommended they consult their respective subject teachers. Students were encouraged to do group discussion for their study.
3. The third meeting with the mentees was held on February 20, 2025. In this meeting, the mentees were encouraged to start preparing for their annual exams. They were advised to complete their assignments in time. Mentees were advised to create a timetable and dedicate daily study time to each subject. Some students were facing problems in some of the topics, so they were encouraged to discuss those topics with their respective subject teachers.
